LOCATION

The eleven-story hotel is shaped like a horseshoe, whose inner surface echoes the great opera houses, with the rooms' balconies looking out onto the Old City, and the historical Tower of David.

The attenuated sides of the horseshoe step down on either side, allowing each suite a roof garden.

The David Citadel is adjacent to Mamilla Avenue, and within walking distance of many major touristic sites.

The Avenue directly leads into the Old City's main entrance, Jaffa Gate, and from here it's a stroll to myriad holy places, archeological sites and vibrant exotic markets dotting the ancient city.
