Proximity to Christian tourist sites near the Sea of Galilee

Many places around the Sea of Galilee played an important role in the life of Jesus and in the dissemination of his teachings:

Kfar Nahum is referred to by the Christians as the "City of Jesus"; Tabgha is the site of the miracle of bread and fish; Mount of Beatitudes (or Mount Sermon) is considered the place where Jesus carried the Sermon on the Mount, which included some of the most important elements of the Christian religion; Some of his emissaries came from Beit Zaida, where several of his miracles took place; And in the Kursi National Park you can find the remains of a monastery and a church from the byzantine period' which according to Christian tradition, is where the miracle of pigs; mentioned in the New Testament, took place.

All these sites are where the Christian religion was formed and they later became holy sites for Christianity.

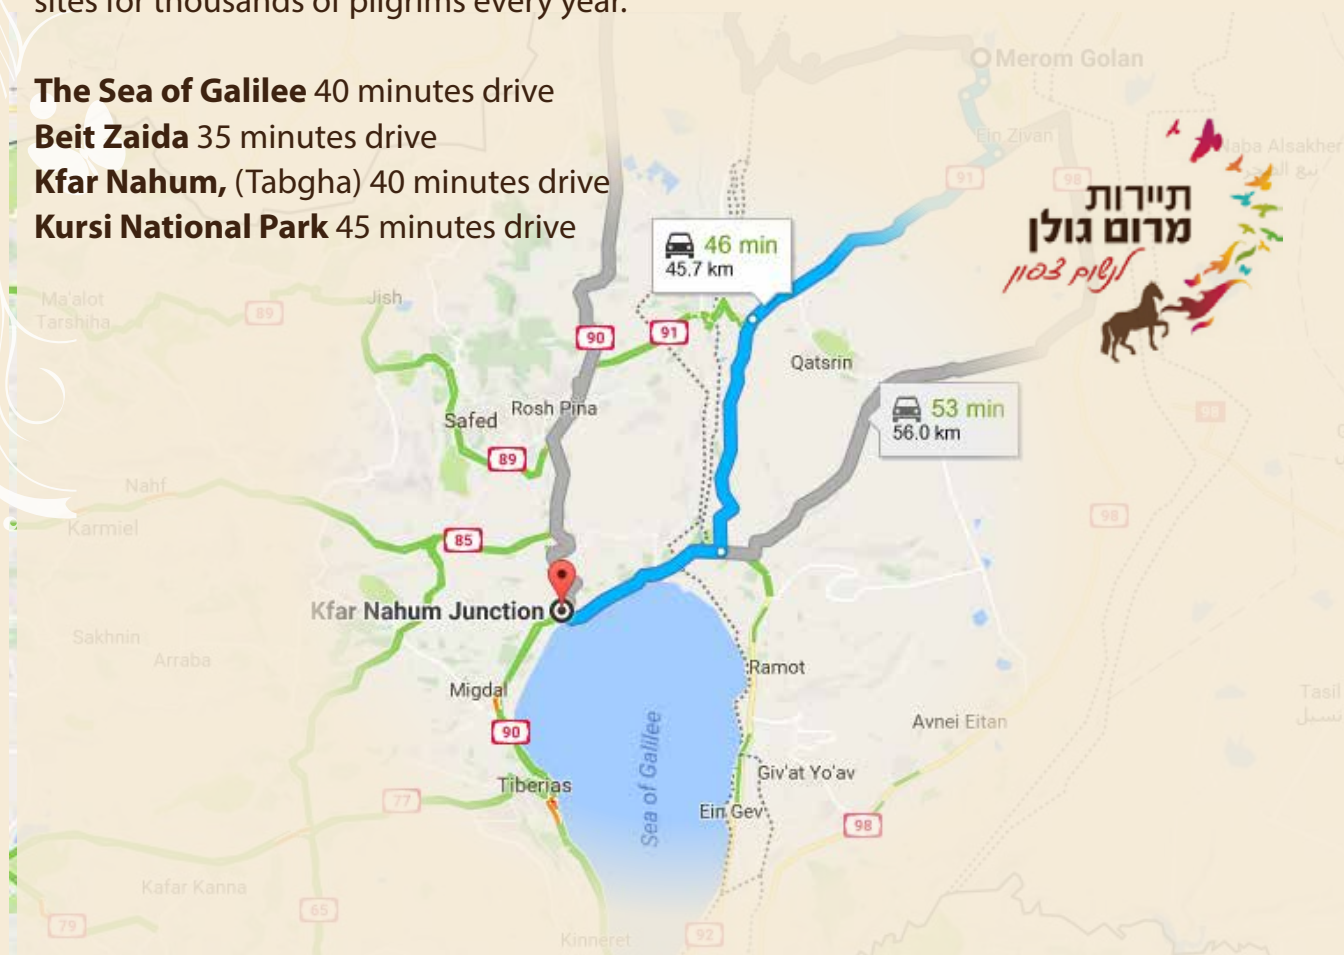

In the byzantine period, most of the churches were built, and today they are pilgrimage sites for thousands of pilgrims every year.

The Sea of Galilee 40 minutes drive

Beit Zaida 35 minutes drive

Kfar Nahum, (Tabgha) 40 minutes drive

Kursi National Park 45 minutes drive
